

November 17, 2013

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with pleasure that I recommend Antonella Romanazzi for performances and master classes. I invited Ms. Romanazzi to perform on the Central College campus in October 2013, during which time she performed as a vocal soloist and taught a vocal master class. Her performances were passionate, sensitive, and full of joy. I am always particularly inspired by her control and interpretation of the musical line.

The extensive vocal master class that she taught was equally stimulating. Ms. Romanazzi quickly discovered the origin or cause of a singer's technical deficiency, and gave clear instruction on how to alleviate the problem. She also explained how work toward correcting that problem would transfer to the student's ability to perform their repertoire. I especially appreciated her work with our students on the fundamentals of breath support and relaxation.

Our students were quite nervous to perform for Ms. Romanazzi, but I knew that they would be in good hands. She is a supportive and sympathetic teacher--one who is able to maintain her high standards without belittling the less accomplished vocalists in a studio. These characteristics are a reflection of the kind and caring person that I have experienced in our musical collaborations together. I hope to welcome her back again in the future.

Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance to you. I encourage you to contact me for any further information, or for clarification on any aspect of my recommendation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads 'Cynthia Krenzel'.

Cynthia Krenzel, D.M.A
Associate Professor of Music
Central College
krenzlc@central.edu
Cynthia-doggett.com
(641) 230-0735